

AAC Hodge VB - Released 2023

Canada Western Red Spring | Midge Tolerant

- 117% of Carberry in registration trials
- Excellent standability
- Superior disease package
 - Rated 'MR' for FHB and 'R' to all other Priority 1 diseases
- Wheat midge tolerant

Commercial Varieties in Parentage: Alsen, Howell, Prodigy
 Refuge: AAC Hockley

"Highest yielding CWRS ever registered*"

Variety	Yield (% Carberry Area 1&2)	Yield (% Carberry Area 3&4)	Maturity (days)	Height (cm)	Lodging	Test Weight (+/- kg/hL of check)	Kernel Weight (+/- mg of check)	Protein (%)	Sprouting	Stem Rust	Leaf Rust	Stripe Rust	Bunt	FHB	Midge Tolerant
AAC Hodge VB	108	115	100	88	G	+0.5	-0.7	14.0	F	R	R	R	R	MR	Y
Carberry	100	100	101	81	VG	0	0	14.6	F	MR	R	MR	R	MR	N
AAC Brandon	106	106	101	81	G	+0.2	+0.4	14.3	P	R	R	MR	S	MR	N

Source: 2023 Sask Seed Guide

Frederick Edward Hodge

Frederick Hodge was born May 17, 1919 in Winnipeg, MB. He joined the Royal Winnipeg Rifles in 1938 and went overseas in 1941. A Major with the 7th Infantry Brigade, Hodge was part of the initial assault on Juno Beach, D-Day June 6, 1944. Hodge was taken as a prisoner of war and later executed.

Breeders innovate.